

Health and Safety Policy

Shirley Baptist Church, Southampton, Health & Safety Policy

This version was amended and adopted by the New Dawn Management Committee on 06/10/2014

Last Updated October 2019 - See Management Committee Minutes for details of changes

The church recognises and accepts its responsibilities for providing, so far as is reasonably practicable, a safe and healthy environment with a view to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of all those who use church premises.

1. The church will, therefore, take all necessary steps within its power to meet its responsibilities so far as is reasonably practicable by, among other arrangements:
 1. maintaining church premises in a condition that is safe and without risk to health and providing and maintaining means of access to and egress from it that are safe and without such risks;
 2. providing and maintaining furnishings and equipment which are safe and without risks to health;
 3. assessing the risk to the health and safety of those who use church premises;
 4. ensuring the safety and absence of risks to health in connection with the use, handling, storage and transport of articles and substances;
 5. the provision of such information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to ensure the health and safety of those who use the church premises;
 6. the provision and maintenance of a proper environment for the church's employees, leaders, helpers and volunteers that is safe, without risks to health, and adequate as regards facilities and arrangements for their welfare;
 7. consulting, where necessary, with all employees, leaders, helpers and volunteers on the implementation of any changes to this policy
 8. ensuring that adequate funds and resources are made available for carrying out this policy.
2. The church has given the overall responsibility for the fulfilment of this policy to Brenda Greenwood as the church's Health and Safety Officer but subject hereto the Ministry Team will be responsible for carrying out the implementation of the church's policy and for the issue of supplementary policy statements where this may be necessary. The New Dawn Centre officer with responsibility for Health and Safety will be the Co-ordinator Kirsty Cummins.
3. The Church's Health and Safety Officer will
 1. carry out appropriate risk assessments (these to be reviewed annually) of the church's premises and activities and report to the Ministry Team as necessary;
 2. co-ordinate the implementation of the church's Health and Safety Policy (including Fire Safety);
 3. carry out investigations of any accidents and recommend measures for preventing their recurrence;
 4. ensure the accident and other appropriate records are maintained and returned to the appropriate bodies
 5. ensure that all appropriate arrangements are made to provide for first aid;
 6. ensure that all food safety legislation is complied with;

7. arrange safety training course, as may be necessary or desirable, so that specific legal requirements are adhered to and that any changes in such requirements are complied with and communicated to employees, leaders, helpers and volunteers as necessary;
 8. ensure that, where necessary, all relevant safety regulations are prominently displayed, that all emergency procedure notices are properly exhibited and clearly visible at all times;
 9. ensure that access to and from emergency exits and fire equipment are not impaired and that corridors and stairs are kept free from obstructions other than of a temporary and partial nature.
4. All employees, leaders, helpers and volunteers will:
1. take reasonable care of their health and safety, and of the health and safety of other persons who may be affected by a person's act or omissions while working or helping;
 2. inform their Team Leader or the Co-ordinator of changes in their personal circumstances, that may affect the health and safety of the NDCCC sessions;
 3. as regards any duty or requirement imposed on the church or any person by or under any of the relevant statutory provisions, co-operate with the church so far as is necessary to enable that duty or requirement to be performed or complied with;
 4. ensure that they shall not intentionally or recklessly interfere with nor misuse anything provided in the interest of health, safety or welfare, in pursuance of the relevant statutory provisions;
 5. make themselves familiar with and conform to the Health and Safety Policy of the church at all times;
 6. observe all safety rules, procedures, and codes of practice at all times, and in particular be fully conversant with the procedures to be followed in the event of a fire or any other emergency;
 7. conform to all the food safety regulation that are applicable to themselves;
 8. co-operate with the church to enable it to carry out the duties and requirements under the provisions of all health and safety legislation, including participating in any training if called upon to do so;
 9. report to the church's Health and Safety Officer all accidents or hazardous occurrences or dangers whether persons are injured or not as soon as is reasonably practicable;
 10. ensure that all working equipment and materials used by them are in a safe and serviceable condition and that no cables or wires are left in such a position as to be likely to cause anyone to trip;
 11. have regard to the possible consequences of their actions on the health, safety and welfare of all those persons who at any times and for whatever purpose may, or will use the church premises.

This policy statement was adopted by a resolution of a Church Members' Meeting dated 01/03/2007
